Order Concerning
Management of Exhibits

Type of Hearing: Trial

Date of Hearing: 08/10/26

Presiding Judicial Officer: Celene Gogerty

This order concerns exhibits dealt with in the proceeding identified above. Consistent with Iowa Court Rule 16.412(1), the clerk shall electronically maintain exhibits capable of being maintained electronically. Paper exhibits which are of a size and type that they can be satisfactorily scanned may be scanned and maintained electronically. Exhibits not capable of being satisfactorily maintained electronically shall be retained in their original form.

The parties stipulate that the electronic submissions are verbatim originals of the paper documents used during the proceeding. All parties have ten business days in which to file objections and/or requests for changes to this order. Objections and requests not received within that period are waived and the order will be deemed filed with the consent of the parties.

If a separate sealing order has been entered, it shall be applied in conjunction with this order. All exhibits retain their default case security status and the document security level they had at the time of admission except for changes set out herein.
